A Service of Lessons, Song, and the Lord's Supper

Opening Hymn

Prayer

Lord God, you have brought us safely through another year to this hour of evening prayer. We thank you for providing all that we need for body and life. Bless us who have gathered in your name. Forgive our sins. Speak to our hearts. Dispel our sorrows with the comfort of your Word, and receive our hymns of thanks and praise.

On this New Year's Eve we also ask that you teach us to think rightly on time and the shortness of time in this world. Teach us to count each day as a blessing from you. Help us to use this time you give us for your purpose - to serve and share in your love. We pray in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

A Lesson on Time

Ecclesiastes 1:1-11

The words of the Teacher, son of David, king in Jerusalem:

“Meaningless! Meaningless!”

says the Teacher.

“Utterly meaningless!

Everything is meaningless.”

What does man gain from all his labor at which he toils under the sun?

Generations come and generations go,

but the earth remains forever.

The sun rises and the sun sets,

and hurries back to where it rises.

The wind blows to the south and turns to the north;

round and round it goes,
 ever returning on its course.
All streams flow into the sea,
 yet the sea is never full.
To the place the streams come from,
 there they return again.
All things are wearisome,
 more than one can say.
The eye never has enough of seeing,
 nor the ear its fill of hearing.
What has been will be again,
 what has been done will be done again;
 there is nothing new under the sun.
Is there anything of which one can say, “Look! This is something new”?
It was here already, long ago;
 it was here before our time.
There is no remembrance of men of old,
 and even those who are yet to come will not be remembered by those who follow.

 that we may gain a heart of wisdom. (from Ps 90)

A Lesson on Time

Ecclesiastes 3:1-17 (select)

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven:

a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain,
a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,
a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,
a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

C Teach us to number our days aright,
that we may gain a heart of wisdom. (from Ps 90)

I know that everything God does will endure forever; nothing can be added to it and nothing taken from it. God does it so that men will revere him. Whatever is has already been, and what will be has been before; and God will call the past to account. And I saw something else under the sun:

In the place of judgment—wickedness was there, in the place of justice—wickedness was there.

I thought in my heart,
“God will bring to judgment
both the righteous and the wicked, for there will be a time for every activity,
a time for every deed.”

C Teach us to number our days aright,
that we may gain a heart of wisdom. (from Ps 90)

P There is a time for God's judgment.

C There is a time for God's grace.

P Today we live in God's time of grace.

C Tomorrow may be God's time of judgment.

P Today is our time to seek the LORD.

C Today is our time to hear the LORD.

P Today is our time to praise the LORD.

C Today is our time to share the LORD.

Psalm 103 - Of David.

Praise the LORD, O my soul;

all my inmost being, praise his holy name.

Praise the LORD, O my soul,

and forget not all his benefits —

who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the pit

and crowns you with love and compassion, who satisfies your desires with good things

so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

The LORD works righteousness and justice for all the oppressed.

He made known his ways to Moses,

his deeds to the people of Israel:

The LORD is compassionate and gracious,
slow to anger, abounding in love.
He will not always accuse,
nor will he harbor his anger forever;
he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities.
For as high as the heavens are above the earth,
so great is his love for those who fear him;
as far as the east is from the west,
so far has he removed our transgressions from us.
As a father has compassion on his children,
so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him;
for he knows how we are formed,
he remembers that we are dust.
As for man, his days are like grass,
he flourishes like a flower of the field;
the wind blows over it and it is gone,
and its place remembers it no more.
But from everlasting to everlasting
the LORD's love is with those who fear him
Praise the LORD, O my soul.

Gospel Lesson

Matthew 6:25-34

"Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes? Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them.

Are you not much more valuable than they? Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?

“And why do you worry about clothes? See how the lilies of the field grow. They do not labor or spin. Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of these. If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? So do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

that we may gain a heart of wisdom. (from Ps 90)

Lesson

Romans 8:18-30 (select)

I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. ...

We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what he already has? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God's will.

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified.

Litany 1: A Prayer of Intercession

P Almighty God, our heavenly Father, you love your whole creation and forget none of your creatures. We bring you our supplications for all your children, for all those we love and all those committed to your care:

C We implore you to hear us, O God.

P For all who have blessed us with kindness, led us with patience, and restored and refreshed us by their sympathy and help:

C We implore you to hear us, O God.

P For all who have wished or done us ill, that you would turn their hearts to penitence and ours to blessing:

C Lord, have mercy.

P For all prisoners and captives and all who suffer from oppression, that you would lead them to know the perfect freedom of your Son's forgiveness, relieve their suffering, and move us to imitate you by assisting them with works of mercy and compassion:

C Lord, have mercy.

P For all who bear the cross of suffering, who are sick in body or in mind:

C Be merciful and spare them, good Lord.

P For all who are troubled by the suffering or sin of those they love:

C Lord, hear our prayer.

P For all who have experienced worldly loss, that in the midst of darkness and confusion they may find their peace in you:

C We implore you to hear us, O God.

P For all who are absorbed in their own grief, that they may be raised to share the sorrows of their brothers and sisters and to know and appreciate the fellowship of those who bear Christ's cross:

C We implore you to hear us, O God.

P For all who are suffering because of their faithfulness to conviction and duty, that in sacrifice they might find strength and joy; and that you, who see in secret, may uphold them by your grace, so they may at last come to an open reward:

C Lord, have mercy.

P For all who are undergoing temptations of the flesh or who imagine evil in their hearts, that you would enable them to overcome and obtain the victory through Christ:

C Be merciful and spare them, good Lord.

P For all who are lonely and sad in the midst of the joys of others, that they may know you as their Father, Friend, and Comforter:

C Lord, hear our prayer.

P For the infirm, the aged, and all who are approaching death, that they may find their strength in you and obtain a blessed end:

C Lord, hear our prayer.

P For all for whom we have forgotten to pray but who are dear to you:

C Assist them according to their needs, and bring them to your heavenly kingdom, through Christ our Lord.

P O God our Father, hear our intercessions, answer them according to your will, and make us the channels of your infinite pity and helpfulness. Join our prayers with those of all your faithful people as we pray as our master has taught us:

C Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Lift up your hearts.

C We lift them up to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C It is good and right so to do.

P It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give you thanks, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who comes with his Father to make his home in human hearts, working repentance and faith by his Spirit until he comes again.

P Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my (+) body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my (+) blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C Amen.
